

RONALD W. SCHWENKE III

Mr. Schwenke is a Project Architect at Becica Associates. He is a highly motivated individual with over seven years experience in commercial and residential construction and project management. Mr. Schwenke is a versatile professional who's responsibilities include design and development of projects inclusive of site planning, building design, engineering coordination, cost estimation and shop drawing review. He manages projects from schematic design phases through construction documents and specifications with careful consideration for and understanding of Facility Planning, Building Codes and the Americans with Disabilities Act, ADA.

Mr. Schwenke's versatility and composed approach to situations is an asset to completion of any project. He assists clientele through the construction process, striving to provide a well constructed, efficient and quality product

Mr. Schwenke has assisted a multitude of Communities in constructing and upgrading the facilities crucial to their safety and welfare. He has done a wide variety of Fire Stations, Police Stations, Medical facilities and is currently involved in a large educational project. He always considers his clients immediate necessities as well as future growth potential

Education

Wentworth Institute of Technology
Bachelor of Architecture
May 2002

Associates in Architectural Engineering
August 1999

Honors and Activities

American Institute of Architecture
Student Treasurer

- Co-founded the Wentworth Institute of Architects chapter in Boston, MA and established the operating budget for entire chapter inclusive of hosting AIAS lectures and function. Also managed fundraising campaigns and held several organizational field trips.

Relevant Project Experience

Long Branch Board of Education, Long Branch, NJ

- Elberon Elementary School

Canal Fulton Fire Department, Canton, OH

- Municipal Facilities Expansion
Designed and developed the Municipal Facility for the City of Canal Fulton by renovating the existing Police Station facilities and incorporating a large Fire Station Addition with both public and private facilities for Fire Department and community uses.

Greentown Volunteer Fire Department Greentown, OH

- Addition and Alterations
Designed a large Multi-purpose addition incorporating Fire Station dispatch center, Department living facilities and a Public Voting Facility.

Sandy Township Fire Department Waynesburg, OH

- Addition and Alterations
Assisted the township trustees in developing a large Fire Station facility serving the entire township. Project consisted of renovation the existing facility into new department offices and places a large Apparatus Bay and Gear Room addition.

Nimishillen Township Fire Station Louisville, OH

- Renovations
Worked closely with the townships budget to upgrade the existing Fire Department to handle continual and future population growth and coverage area.

